Q96 English language

Comprehension: Read the extract carefully and answer the questions that follow. Exiting the station, I woke up the driver of a horse-drawn carriage. In those days Sawai Madhopur (SM) boasted few motorised vehicles. The town wasn't prosperous. Numerous taxi-jeps and buses taking tourists into the park were still figments of shiny future ambition. Garish hotel chains were yet to sprout, mushrooming along newly surfaced roads to the park. This was a town, sprawled untidily around the railway track, the only reason for its existence. Since then, local painters have decorated the station walls. Now murals of our tigers and other wildlife engage curious passers-by, increasing awareness like a kind of open-air art museum. Back in 1976, we trotted off to the only guesthouse nearby. A reluctant proprietor prised open a musty room. I spent a sleepless night. Next morning, I introduced myself to Fateh, the wildlife warden for the park. He looked over his luxuriant moustache disbelievingly at me and my camera. No one came here, he told me, to 'visit'. Jolting along dirt tracks, we drove out towards the reserve. Slowly the wilderness took over. I scanned the forest for wildlife, unaware my tracking skills would take years to develop.
