Q49 English

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

The city's roadsides in summers are often seen with colourful bottles of sharbat syrups lined up, while vendors are offering glasses of sharbat to thirsty customers. Several years ago, people in the Middle East introduced the sharbat drink to keep themselves cool and hydrated in the hot and humid weather. This tasty drink was originally made with rose petals and a mix of fruits like oranges and mangoes, etc, along with chia seeds as a main ingredient. The drink has travelled across regions and with the movement of trade, sharbat slowly finds a place in India. Earlier, people made sharbat syrup by themselves by soaking roots of the nannari plant for hours, and it was strained, then the mix was boiled along with a lemon slice and palm sugar or jaggery. After extracting the syrup, they made the drink, which was then stored in mud pots to keep it cool.

Choose the most appropriate title for the passage.
